The Salt Lake Columbia River and Puget Sound Railroad

MEMORIAL OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OREGON ADOPTED SEPTEMBER 21 1868

To the Honorable, the Congress of the United States

The memorial of the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon

Your Memorialists respectfully and earnestly represent, that the extension of a branch of the Union Pacific Railroad from a point in the vicinity of Salt Lake in the Territory of Utah by the nearest and most practicable route through the Snake and Boise valleys in Idaho Territory Powder Burnt and Grand Ronde valleys to the Columbia river and Portland in Oregon and thence to Puget Sound in Washington Territory would be of great national benefit and conduce to the happiness and prosperity of the present and future population of the State and Territories aforesaid which embrace all that district of country between the 42d and 49th degrees of north latitude, and between the 34th and 4 th degrees of west longitude, covering an area of more than three hundred thousand square miles Adjacent upon the north of this vast empire (so to speak) lies British Columbia and Vancouver s Island which, although not within the limits of the United States, are nevertheless tributaries to our national wealth

The location and geographical extent of this vast country are not the least of its attractive qualities Without particularizing, its unsurpassed agricultural and mineral resources, its tillable lands and mountain slopes its fertile plains and rich valleys with the Columbia Willamette Umpqua and Rogue rivers and their tributaries coursing its lengths and breadths nourishing it into life and activity Its two great harbors—the Columbia from its mouth to Portland a distance of over one hundred miles and Puget Sound with many others of minor importance a sea coast commencing at the 42d degree of north latitude and stretching away north over one thousand miles, intersected by the Columbia and Straits of Fuca

This extensive well watered and fertile country, when scarcely inhabited by the white man was the subject of the anxious care and consideration of our National Government, now it contains in the aggregate over two hundred thousand inhabitants proud to say, that to them the national arm and fostering care of the Government has ever been extended, though often falling short of the objects sought to be accomplished We have a civilization of a high order schools colleges and churches everywhere, demonstrating the efforts of wise and good men while millions and millions of the products of the earth await the facilities for transportation Wheat, the staple article of our country's products—the best the world has ever seen—to day in another s name bears the medal of Parisian honor

It may safely be said that four fifths of the lands within this district are public, unoccupied lands of the United States To be sure in some sections of the country, as in the Willamette valley, the best quality of lands of the United States have been selected, but the proposed road would be on a line running centrally through the district referred to and pouring in its stream of immigration and commerce would early bring a large proportion of those lands into requisition for residence and cultivation and in the receipts for the sale of those lands reimburse the Government for all its outlay

The construction of this road is a subject of national interest because that ordinarily it would be of great utility in the military and postal service of the United States, being the shortest and most direct route from the heart of the nation to this great northwest, while in case of war, it is almost impossible to over estimate its importance in the transportation of armies and munitions of war

It is of further national importance that this road should be constructed because, assuming that the selection of Omaha, and that line was on account of their central position to the Atlantic States, it must be apparent to the most casual observer that the proposed road is the shortest route from the Atlantic States to the intersection of ocean steamers in the China trade whether they be in the Columbia at Portland or at Puget Sound

The distance from the point where this road would branch from the Union Pacific to the city of Portland, is about seven hundred miles while the distance from the same point to San Francisco is over eight hundred miles From San Francisco vessels must sail north about eight hundred miles before they enter the trade line To illustrate this comparison more fully if a railroad was completed from San Francisco direct to Portland, or Puget Sound, and transportation by rail was as cheap as by sea a merchant at Omaha would be far from sending his trade by San Francisco, and thence by sea or rail north into the line of the China trade, or even to supply the Oregon and Washington trade, when by the proposed road from Salt Lake to the Columbia and Portland his goods would reach Portland and Puget Sound, if necessary, by the time they would reach San Francisco

While your Memorialists desire to furnish no obstruction to the extension of the proposed road to Puget Sound, believing as we do that so far from its injuring the city of Portland, or any other part of Oregon the extension will be reciprocally beneficial to both They nevertheless, deem it proper to state that by a recent official survey of the south entrance to the Columbia river, there has been found twenty eight feet of water at low tide, of an average width of one mile and a half The Jeanne Alice late from China, drawing seventeen feet of water, was brought into Portland without any difficulty resulting from the want of water, though she lay out some time for want of wood and pilot. So soon as towage was procured she was brought directly to Portland. So that in comparing the San Francisco with the Salt Lake and Columbia river route, we need not necessarily count the distance from Portland to Puget Sound although we may safely do so

Intersection with the Columbia river is named as a point in the line of the proposed road, because by it facilities for transportation are afforded from the point of intersection to the city of Portland and Astoria a great portion of the year whilst the road is being constructed thus opening communication with the great central trunk road in a very short time.

The city of Portland is justly named as a prominent point, because it is growing into great commercial importance, to which centers the trade and commerce of Eastern and Western Oregon and much of Washington Idaho and Montana. It is situated upon the banks of the Willamette river, near its confluence with the Columbia. It has two lines of railroad in process of rapid completion—one running on each side of the Willamette to the head of the valley where they will intersect, and thence proceed by a single line of road south through the valleys of the Umpqua and Rogue rivers, strictly in accordance with the act of Congress, of the 25th day of July 1866 making donations of land to aid in its construction

Whether however, this road shall be constructed through the California mountains, as originally contemplated, or diverge away east to the Humboldt it is clear that some point in the valley of the Rogue river, like those on the great Pacific Railroad, for a time will be the virtual terminus building up large cities and gathering in the vastly increased trade and commerce of Southern Oregon and Northern California

The city of Portland is also intersected by the commerce flowing from the Upper Columbia and Snake rivers and by another line from the Lower Columbia, and also a line of commerce to and from Puget Sound British Columbia and Vancouver s Island

Looking for a passage through the Cascade Mountains, none can surpass or equal that of the Columbia river along its banks miles below the heavy snows of winter the cars may glide in perfect safety

Therefore, and for the many good reasons hereinbefore mentioned your Memorialists pray that an equal amount of lands and money may be granted to aid in the construction of the Salt Lake and Columbia river road, as was granted to the great Central line

The New York Herald the paper which furnishes the brains for the Democratic party of the United States, holds that the Union of the States ought not to be maintained by force and says (semi-officially) that if Seymour is elected he will never allow military force to be used to maintain the Union of the States "

An Incident Related on Democratic Authority

Anxious to show that still in his sodden ashes live some sparks of ancient fire, the venerable of the Herald undertakes seriously to vindicate and uphold Hon Stout and Hon Trevitt. We have already paid our respects to the first named of these individuals sufficiently to answer our present purpose and only refer to the latter again in order to revive a curious incident in the history of a person whose name bears a singular resemblance to that of Hon Tappertit T Happening to live in Washington Territory some years ago we observed the following curious notice in the Olympia Pioneer and Dem... at and as a curiosity it found a place in our scrap book though we never supposed we should have any occasion to use it The paper in which the notice was published was a genuine Democratic sheet, and the number we clipped from bore the date of May 1857

MARRIED

On Saturday the —— day of May last at the residence of his Excellency Stock Whitley Governor and Commander in Chief of all the hostiles east of the mountains by the Rev Father Burnett, General Victor Trevitt to the honorable Eugenia Isabella Clementina Kanoaho ... Antelopia ... Gorman to Stock Whitley Esq, aforesaid

We are thus particular in ... of the high standing (by blood fortune and ...) of the parties, to say nothing of the very liberal allowance of the good things forwarded to us such as cricket cheese, fern roots, dried antelope liver etc, etc and while digesting the same will earnestly pray for the happy couple a long life and a fruitful one

At last accounts the parties were doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances. The happy bridegroom being nearly allied by lineal descent to the Asiatic nobility they are expected to visit Turkey during the ... Ladies in Central Asia would do well to anticipate his visit inasmuch as he has a decided ... in that direction

The papers in Patagonia Queen Charlotte s Island and Central Africa will please copy as those localities are to be visited in the bridal tour

The foregoing was, we believe, also published in due form in the Statesman, the Democratic organ of Oregon If Hon Tappertit is the person meant, it will be seen that he is not by any means "a youth to fortune and fame unknown"

The Docile Lambs

B H Hill a Georgia rebel, in a speech at Augusta in that State, on the 21st August verified in the following manner the Democratic statement that the South accepts the situation It will be seen that he says nothing against negro suffrage as a principle, he is willing to accept it if the negroes will only vote as he and his rebel friends dictate

It is my duty to warn you (the colored people,) to-night that if you turn a deaf ear to what I have spoken to you if you will be deceived, if you will hate the white people if you yourselves will provoke a war of races—I warn you that destruction is in store for you When such a war comes, if unhappily it should the whites, North and South, will unite against you I see letters from the North almost every day, saying let the contest come we will fight it out We want peace—we intend to have peace—it is to our interest to have peace, but if you will wage war, if you will follow strangers if you will hate our people at the instigation of carpet baggers, woe be unto you These are words which should strike deep into your hearts, as I utter them—woe! woe! unto you will be the words from all parts of the world And now we offer forgiveness to all who are willing to do right. There has been a time for errors, for dissensions for mistakes That time has passed. Let us forgive and forget, and let us take all in who are willing to aid us in the great work before us Let us teach the colored man his duty, be kind and forbearing to the colored man, forgiving to the penitent and to all who are willing to save the country But when I have said that, my powers of forgiveness are exhausted The man who votes for the vassalage of the Southern white people to the Northern white people, forgets himself and his country—its present, its past, and its future The man who votes the Radical ticket should forever be condemned by the white and black But even to these wicked miscreants use no violence hurt not a hair of their heads, but drive them from your society, forsake them in their business and brand them like Cain, to be fugitives and vagabonds upon the face of the earth."

Republican majority in 1867, 20 184 Republican majority in 1868 (with six towns to hear from) 28,451 The full returns will carry this majority up to 27,000, the figures first reported The vote is the largest ever thrown in the State

The Thing Explained

The only thing the Copperheads have to fall back on to prove the loyalty of their candidate is the tender of thanks made to him (Seymour) by President Lincoln Ex-Gov Tod of Ohio, in a recent speech in that State, said of this matter

> Seymour is an intelligent man I know him well He was Governor at the same time I was Governor Mr Lincoln called for volunteers I sent him only thirty thousand, while Seymour sent fifteen thousand The President went round complimenting Seymour, and saying nothing about what I had done. I took Mr. Lincoln to task for this I said, "How is it you are complimenting Seymour for his fifteen thousand men, and neglecting to compliment Morton and me?" His answer was perfectly satisfactory. He said, "Why, Tod I never thanked Mrs Lincoln for a cup of tea in my life [Laughter and applause] The truth was Morton and I had done nothing but what was expected of us while Seymour had He had never done the like before and never did afterward "

Said the New York World in August "The first real contest of the campaign will be fought in Maine Up to last year this State was good every year for a Republican majority of from 15,000 to 18 000 but last year this majority was reduced to a little more than 11 000 while the Radical vote fell off nearly 12 000 in a single year Since that time there have been unmistakable evidences that the reaction which has affected nearly every State in the Union where a legitimate election has been held since 1864 has been likewise experienced in Maine" Yes, it has been experienced in Maine to the extent of a gain by the Republicans of 10,000 on their majority of last year But the World now says the Maine election has no significance! "In that case, the case being altered why that alters the case!"

The New York Sun says that John Allen, who a short time since terminated his engagement as the Wickedest Man in New York, is now talked of as the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Third District at present represented by John Fox The only dissatisfaction expressed with Mr Fox arises from his not being a speaker He is wanting in oratorical power John Allen is represented to be a natural orator He is a very ardent Democrat an enthusiastic supporter of Seymour and Blair, and knows how to make speeches for them. He has just been on a drunk again, and is clearly in training for the position.

Southern Democrats Charge their Crimes on Gen Grant

As the story of General Grant's alleged drunkenness is becoming overworn and ineffectual, some new calumny must be started to take its place and supply the Democratic Copperhead and Ku Klux organs with material for argument. To meet this pressing demand, Robert Ould, an unhanged rebel who was Jeff Davis' commissioner for the exchange of prisoners during the war, publishes a long letter, with a design of showing that Grant is responsible for the suffering of our soldiers in rebel prisons. Of course the organs of the Wade Hampton Democracy publish this letter with great glee, though it gives no facts, documents or proofs, and it is the origin of an effort which is now being made throughout the country to prove that General Grant is the real author of the brutal tortures inflicted upon our suffering soldiers in rebel prisons by the present leaders of the Democratic party. The assurance with which the murderers of our brave boys now charge their own crimes upon the leader of the Union armies, on pretence that he might sooner have rescued his suffering friends from their torturing hands, is surely without a parallel, except in the general transactions of the leaders of the Democracy. That the rebel Ould should be summoned by the Democrats as a witness against the humanity of the Union leader is not astonishing, but the difficulty will be to get any man except those who rejoiced in Union defeats and clapped their hands when they heard of capture of our men by the rebels, to believe his testimony.

Nobody now can doubt that the horrors of Andersonville were such as have never been paralleled on this earth. For a long time the accounts of the sufferings of that horrible prison pen were denied and derided both by Democrats and their rebel friends, but denial has become vain, and this most gigantic of crimes stands revealed to all the world. [illegible] we find those who have hitherto made light of these horrors charging them upon the defenders and saviors of the country, and welcoming their real perpetrators to their alliance, as men "who do honor to the name of American citizens!"

The rebel leaders had a deep purpose in view in torturing our men as they did in those horrible abodes of famine and death. They did it systematically, as a matter of policy. By torturing Union prisoners they thought to disgust Northern men with the war and strengthen the ranks of the peace sneaks of the Democratic party. Their further object was to render nugatory the policy of emancipation and compel President Lincoln to revoke it. This they thought to do by refusing to exchange black troops who had fallen into their hands. The rebels would exchange white troops if they could be allowed to retain the blacks to murder them. Mr Lincoln would not permit this distinction, nor yield up any portion of the defenders of the Union, as out of the protection of the flag they fought for. The rebels hoped to prevent the employment of colored troops, to terrify the blacks so they would not bear arms against them, to compel the Government to give up the policy it was developing and adopting, and abandon the whole scheme of emancipation. Here was the origin of the difficulty of exchanging, and the subsequent complications grew out of this refusal of the rebels to acknowledge colored soldiers who should fall into their hands as prisoners of war. They were determined to force an exchange on their own terms, and it would have been an act of infamous perfidy to the colored troops who had been enlisted in our armies had the Government acceded to the rebel demand.

If the [illegible] Democrats who were then prominent in torturing our soldiers, and who are now attempting to make capital for their party by charging their crimes upon others, had met with their deserts at the close of the rebellion, this matter would long since have been settled on the side of justice, as it is already settled in the minds of all except the [illegible] and their constant allies. Surely the impudence of the Southern Democrats has about reached its maximum when they censure General Grant for not sooner rescuing our suffering soldiers from their cruel hands!

State Matters

The message of the Governor, the report of the Superintendent of the Penitentiary and the report of the Visiting Physician of the Insane Asylum, are now all published in pamphlet form, and are creditable documents. We have already printed the Governor's message in full, and shall now make some notes of the other reports mentioned.

The number of prisoners in the Penitentiary on the 14th September, 1866, was 47. Since that date 69 have been received, 45 have been discharged and 1 has died. The number of convicts at this time is therefore 70.

The total disbursements of the Penitentiary during the past two years have been $57,157 30. The brick made and sold during this period [illegible] fifty cents on the dollar of the total expenditures,—leaving, as Superintendent [illegible] remarks, the personal property [illegible], the labor done upon the State buildings and grounds and the coming crops to pay the remaining fifty cents, which they will [illegible] than do. It is therefore believed that after the buildings are finished the institution can and will be fully self-supporting.

At the Insane Asylum, 141 patients have been treated during the past two years. Of these 22 1 2 per cent have been cured and about half have been either cured or improved. The number remaining 31st August, 1868, was 91. Of these the Visiting Physician, Dr Gill[illegible], remarks: Forty-nine, including six idiotic patients, are chronic, nearly all of whom are considered incurable and medical treatment of no avail. Thirty-one are considered curable and eleven are doubtful. Not having the report of the Secretary of State, we are unable to make a statement of the expenditures of the institution during the last two years.

Referring to Mr Stout, the Herald says it is a shame that private business affairs should be bruited through the public prints. Let us see about this. The Herald stated that Mr Stout's professional income exceeds that of [illegible] public[illegible] lawyer in the State. We answered that his tax on his income is in arrears for several years. Now who has done most to bruit private business affairs through the public prints?

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON, Saturday, Sept 5, 1868

POLITICAL: THE VERMONT ELECTION

The State election in Vermont last Tuesday resulted in a Republican gain over last year of nearly ten thousand votes. The Democrats had been boasting for months that they were receiving heavy accessions to their party in Vermont, and that the election would show a great reduction [illegible] foreshadowing a similar result [illegible] other States. The leading organ of the party in New England, the Boston Post, said three days before the election: "It is expected the result [illegible] will [illegible] reaction of the Radical strength, which will [illegible] still stronger hopes for the general election in that State in November. And the influence of that [illegible] coming from Vermont will [illegible] ally on the subsequent elections in [illegible] States. The result in Vermont will establish the fact of the tendency everywhere else. Maine will heed the example and hasten to [illegible]. The response of joy will [illegible] a general echo [illegible] and re-echo [illegible] Continent. Vermont leads the way." The New York World of the same [illegible] "Vermont will give [illegible]." The prophecies of these Copperhead sages fail to come to pass in Vermont as they have often failed before. Their predictions in regard to New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana will meet the same fate. If the election in Vermont is a correct indication of the tendency of public sentiment in the North, as it doubtless is, Seymour and Blair will not carry a single State east of the Rocky Mountains except Kentucky, Maryland and Delaware, and possibly one or two of the unreconstructed States of the South. At all events the Republicans now feel absolutely certain of every New England State and New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Tennessee and at least four or five of the reconstructed States, which will secure the election of Grant and Colfax by a large majority of the electoral vote.

The New York Republicans feel certain that they will carry the Empire State for Grant and Colfax and elect their State ticket in November. Senator Morgan now [illegible] Mr [illegible] would [illegible] the candidate for Governor, who was here a few days ago [illegible] the_3d the Copperheads nominated [illegible] for Governor. The same day they nominated John Quincy Adams in Massachusetts for Governor of that State.

The best informed Pennsylvanians count on a Republican majority in October and a majority for Grant and Colfax in November of 30,000 in the Keystone State.

The Ohio Republicans are confident of at least 20,000 majority in that State.

The whole North is now ablaze with political excitement. Numerous meetings are held [illegible] in every State. A Maine paper publishes a list of fifty one meetings to be held in that State within the next few days, all to be addressed by Republican orators. The same [illegible] in every other State. These meetings [illegible] that it would be impossible to refer to them in detail without going beyond the limits of an ordinary letter. As a single illustration I will mention that the Republicans held an immense mass meeting in Indianapolis last Tuesday evening, which was the largest political meeting ever held in Indiana. Fifteen thousand torches lighted up the procession and more than twenty thousand people participated in the demonstration.

The Soldiers' and Sailors' National Executive Committee met in New York last Monday and decided to hold a grand mass convention in Philadelphia on the 1st and 2d of October. All the Republican Governors and all the loyal ex-Governors who were in office during the war will be invited [illegible] the present occasion. It is calculated that 50,000 people will be in attendance, and it will be one of the most imposing demonstrations ever witnessed in this country.

Senator Fowler, who was so badly demoralized by the Copperheads during the impeachment trial that he went over to them body and breeches and actually moved his seat over to the Democratic side of the Senate, has come out for Grant and Colfax, according to the latest news from Tennessee, and is working for the Republican ticket. He says the election of Seymour and Blair would be the resuscitation of the rebellion. Senator Fessenden, another of the anti-impeachers, is working for the Republicans of Maine.

INTERNAL REVENUE OFFICERS

Twenty five Supervisors of Internal Revenue are to be appointed under the new Internal Revenue Act. The law vests the recommending power with Commissioner Rollins, and he recommended good and efficient men, not professional politicians, but gentlemen of business qualifications. But Secretary McCulloch, acting under special orders from the President, refuses to appoint his nominees, because they are not Democrats or Copperheads. For two or three weeks the nominations have been hung up in the Treasury Department, to the great loss and detriment of the Government, merely because they are Republicans. The Secretary proposes to compromise with Mr Rollins by appointing twelve Republicans and twelve Democrats, the odd one to be drawn by lot, but the latter has not acceded to his proposition as yet. In order to get those offices into their own hands so as to use the Government patronage in the coming elections, the Copperheads have been making desperate efforts lately to get Rollins out. They prevailed upon Mr Johnson to accept his resignation, but the Attorney General decided that as it was tendered to take effect when a successor was appointed and confirmed by the Senate, the President could not get him out in that way. They have ever since been trying to get up some charges against him to have him suspended so that an ad interim appointment can be made, but they can't find anything on which to base their charges. However, this week they have had two or three of his subordinates arrested in New York on some frivolous charges, but are not likely to make much out of it. If they could get Rollins out, one of the most notorious thieves in the whisky ring would be sure to get the office, and all the subordinates would be provided for. Every man that the President nominated to that office last winter was a notorious and recognized member of the whiskey ring. Perry Fuller, one of the most corrupt of the whole party, was nominated to that office by the President and rejected by the Senate. He is now appointed Collector of Customs for the port of New Orleans.

REVENUE OFFICERS APPOINTED

Among the Gaugers recently appointed under the new Internal Revenue law are the following: Oscar Kilbourn, for the District of Oregon; B. R. McIntire, Dakota; Geo E. Crater, Colorado; Benj. Lowenstein, New Mexico; H. S. Parker, Idaho; Milton G. Gillett, Holmes C. [illegible], and J. S. Woods have been appointed Storekeepers for California, and J. Hunter, Gauger for the District of California.

FRAUDS IN THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

It is ascertained that frauds have been committed by the post office blank agent at Buffalo amounting to more than half a million dollars. This agent has been in the habit, upon receiving requisitions from postmasters for blanks and twine, of sending only half the amount called for, charging for the whole supplies, and filing the requisitions of the postmasters as vouchers with his accounts. His confederates in the Departments here would pass these accounts and credit him with the money value of the order. This system of swindling has been going on since 1860. Detectives have been investigating the matter about six weeks. A clerk in the printing office, one in the Post Office Department and one in the Treasury, were arrested last Tuesday on a charge of complicity in this matter, but have been released for want of proper proof.

RECIPROCITY WITH CANADA

Secretary Seward has entered into negotiations with the British Minister for a new reciprocity treaty with Canada. The old treaty forms the basis of the new one. It will soon be forwarded to the English Government and the Canadian authorities, and will be ready for ratification by the Senate at the December session of Congress. No doubt Fessenden, Sherman and others who opposed and defeated the Sandwich Islands treaty at the last session will be in favor of a similar treaty with Canada, for the reason that it will benefit their constituents, and in order to have reciprocity with Canada, it is quite likely that they will conclude to vote for it with the Sandwich Islands.

THE SOUTHERN REBELS

The unreconstructed Democracy of the South are becoming more and more aggressive and are perpetrating high handed outrages in every part of the South with impunity since the military authority has been withdrawn. They amused themselves on the 2d instant by expelling twenty five members of the Georgia House of Representatives because they were not white men, although every one of them had been legally elected under the reconstruction laws. The amendment proposed amounted to [illegible] from the memorial of the greater part of the country in which exists the inducement to build a road. It was suggested to the gentlemen supporting the amendment that if a direct line from Salt Lake to Puget Sound with [illegible] country to supply business for the road were the chief thing, [illegible] Eastern Oregon might be left out. It will unquestionably pass the Senate.

The reference was [illegible] for the purpose of perfecting the memorial by amendments. I transmit herewith both of the memorials.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Two messages were received from the Governor—one in response to a resolution of inquiry respecting the lands donated to the State for an agricultural college, referring to the report of School Land Commissioners for such information; the other explanatory of an omission of a part of the report of the Superintendent of the Penitentiary from the copy as printed, and a statement that the State Printer would supply the omitted part.

Mr Cox offered a resolution directing the Secretary of State to draw warrants in favor of members for their mileage to and from the Capital. Nobody seemed to have any objection and the resolution was adopted.

A NATIONAL SCHOOL FUND

Mr Gray offered a "whereas," reciting that there is a doubt whether the Constitution of the United States confers upon Congress the right to dispose of the public lands by gift or otherwise to persons or companies for public improvements, and a resolution asking our members of Congress to use their influence to have means devised for converting the public domain into a national school fund, etc. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

IN THE SENATE

The rule prescribing the number of standing committees was amended and a new committee to be called Committee on Railroads was added, and Messrs Miller of Jackson, [illegible] and Adams were appointed. A couple of bills were passed. A message from the Governor concerning the omission of a portion of the report of Superintendent of the Penitentiary was read, and a resolution to print eight hundred copies of the Governor's Message and accompanying documents was adopted. And the Senate adjourned.

DENTIST.

OFFICE—Southwest corner Front and [illegible] Streets, opposite E J Northrup & Co's Hardware Store.

I am now making, among numerous other styles of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, the improved Vulcanite in case of Dr G W Cool's Patent, patented Dec. 3, 18[illegible]. The improvement of which consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold. It not only makes the plate fully as strong and cleanlier than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can by it be made considerably thinner and tighter, whereas the price is but little above that for common plates. Call and see specimens.

N B—Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr. G. W. Cool's Improved Vulcanite Plates can have it made out to them by applying to this office.

N B—To strangers I would say that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 529 AND 631 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his [illegible] seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive not only after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Campaign Song

The Boys in Blue are Coming

BY J. K. ROE, JR

They are coming, Mr Seymour a host of boys in blue
Fresh from a hundred fields of war the battle-scarred and true
Not now with gleaming bayonets and roll of martial drum
But armed with ballots for the right, in peaceful ranks they come
To shield the starry flag they love from traitors' hands to save
They are coming, Mr Seymour a host of boys in blue

They are coming, Mr Seymour the loyal boys in blue
From Maine and from New Hampshire and the Bay State ever true
From the Green Mountains of Vermont, and Little Rhody's shore
From the homesteads of Connecticut the hardy vote ans pour;
As late when flashing o'er the land, the news of Sumter flew
They are coming, Mr Seymour the loyal boys in blue

They are coming, Mr Seymour the loyal boys in blue
From New Jersey and from Delaware, and Maryland ever true;
And from the grand old Keystone state, man answering for man,
With pledges for the Star Brigade the ballot in the hand,
To yield the soldier meed of praise to worth and valor due,
They are coming, Mr Seymour the loyal boys in blue

They are coming, Mr Seymour the earnest boys in blue
From the shop and mill and forge and field, the steadfast and the true
The heroes of the Empire State despite her recreant son
Who turns to shame and mockery the good that has been done;
To spurn with wrath the devil's faults the faithless devils, too.
They are coming, Mr Seymour, the earnest boys in blue

They are coming Mr Seymour the veterans of the West
From their grand prairies and their lakes the finest and the best,
From the broad rivers, whose strong waves bear joyous to the sea
The treasures of the continent, and the tribute of the free
To speak once more, in thunder tones, a people's high behest,
They are coming, Mr Seymour, the veterans of the West.

They are coming Mr Seymour, a host of boys in blue
Fresh from a hundred fields of war the battle worn and true;
Not now with gleaming bayonets, and roll of martial drums
But armed with ballots for the right, in peaceful ranks they come,
To guard the starry flag they love, from traitors hands above
They are coming, Mr Seymour a host of boys in blue

Democrats Changing

The Detroit Tribune publishes a letter from one "who has voted constantly with the Democratic party." The writer says:

That there is a strong feeling in the minds of the Democrats who stood by the Government in her hour of trouble, and that this feeling will, I assure you, before election day, blaze out in a perfect enthusiasm for Grant. You will find that the masses of the people, Democrats and Republicans, are not yet ready to surrender the Government into the hands of those who would have destroyed it.

The Tribune observes of the author of this letter:

The writer is an old resident of this city, and has acted [illegible] with the Democratic party [illegible] been honored by that party with important local offices, and few men have had more influence for the time being in one of the most Democratic wards in the city. He speaks out openly what many a "War Democrat" must think, and we have no doubt his ringing, patriotic letter will awaken a response in the bosom of many a War Democrat.

A Cal Boynton writes from Washington to the Cincinnati Gazette:

General Steadman was one of the most prominent men in the Hancock movement. The day after the nomination Seymour called on him at his hotel, the mission being one of conciliation. But, as the result showed, very little comfort did Seymour receive. Steedman told him plainly that his nomination [illegible] by [illegible] which was that [illegible] a soldier [illegible] that he was a [illegible] Democracy alone, and that [illegible] might [illegible] apologize for his [illegible] the war, every soldier in the land [illegible] the man or party which approved it. This was but a part of Steedman's honest language, and Steedman, unlike some who feel as he does, tells every one openly that he will not support the ticket. General Ewing supports the ticket [illegible], having been a candidate before the Convention, he feels in honor bound to abide its action.

But there is no man in Washington who feels more downhearted than he over the action of the Convention. His brother, who has been as earnest as the General in all conservative movements, [illegible] the ticket, and supports Grant and Colfax. This is only of moment as showing the real feeling of the Ewing circle. There has hardly been a more dispirited man in Washington since the New York Convention than Doolittle. To his friends the burden of all his talk has been [illegible] hardly have been worse, but the ticket will grow. Don't be blue, it will surely grow [illegible] of those at the North, of course. Caleb [illegible] does not conceal his disgust, and few displays [illegible] way he has of describing the situation. "Seymour won't live a year if you [illegible]. Your ticket is nothing more or less than this: For President, Frank P Blair." Montgomery Blair himself tells his friends, with an expletive, "The ticket is a good one, but then, of course, it's wrong side up." General L. D. Campbell had no soft words whatever for the [illegible]. The [illegible] is said [illegible] distant. He has as yet done nothing whatever which leads the [illegible] to feel that he will make his influence felt in a positive manner during the campaign.

The New York German [illegible], just [illegible], strikes the key note of the campaign when it declares: "Strip the kernel of the coverings in which sophistry has disguised it and you will find the naked question to be simply Shall peace and prosperity come to the Republic from the election of [illegible], or [illegible] and a new civil [illegible]

At the [illegible] day's session of the New York [illegible] State Convention, held at Albany, on the [illegible], the platform of the National Democratic Convention, with all the planks inserted [illegible] by the rebels N. B. Forrest, Wade Hampton, &c., was pronounced sound.

EXTINGUISHER
SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered.

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows:

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay is shocking) it is of the utmost importance no means are ready at hand.

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement.

It is always ready for use though standing unused for years.

It puts out Fire instantly.

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose.

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman.

It is portable and as easily handled as a bucket of water.

It possesses within itself the power of a fire pump and as effective as a Steam Engine.

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphthaline and combustible materials now in common use.

PACIFIC TURBINE WATER WHEEL.

THESE WHEELS EXCEL ANY OTHER WHEEL in use, and are no infringement on the Leffel American Turbine, but excel it in every particular.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern.—One A. Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that "my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel and he will prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the law." His statements are not worth a denial. His game is "Bluff" which if he would only take the case to Court would soon be played out. Don't believe him.

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision. That would forever stop the mouth of Myers and his misrepresentations. The legal opinions of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Mann and A. Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. H. W. SHIPLEY
